Insurance Definitions

- Health Insurance Marketplace
 - Run by the state or federal government. It is one of the places you can shop and sign up for health coverage from private health coverage companies. If you are eligible for help from the government to pay for your health coverage, you will need to sign up there.
- Health Maintenance Organization (HMO)
 - A type of health plan where you only get care from a network of doctors in your area. You will need to choose a main doctor – primary care provider, from your health plan network.
 - If you need a specialist, you will likely have to go through your main doctor to get a referral in advance of any routine care.
- Preferred Provider Organization (PPO)
 - A type of health coverage plan that covers services from almost any doctor or hospital.
 - But you will almost always pay less for the same level of care when you go to one in your health plan network.
 - You don't usually need a referral from your primary care provider to see a specialist.

Insurance Definitions

- Benefit Period
 - From the start date to the end date of your coverage.
 - If you get care during this time, insurance covers the portion of cost they agreed to.
- Premium
 - The amount you pay the insurance company for your coverage, usually monthly.
 - If you have coverage through work, your employer may share the cost of your premium.
- Coinsurance
 - Your share of the costs for covered health care services, calculated as a percentage.
- Co-pay
 - A set dollar amount you pay for a covered service, such as a doctor visit.

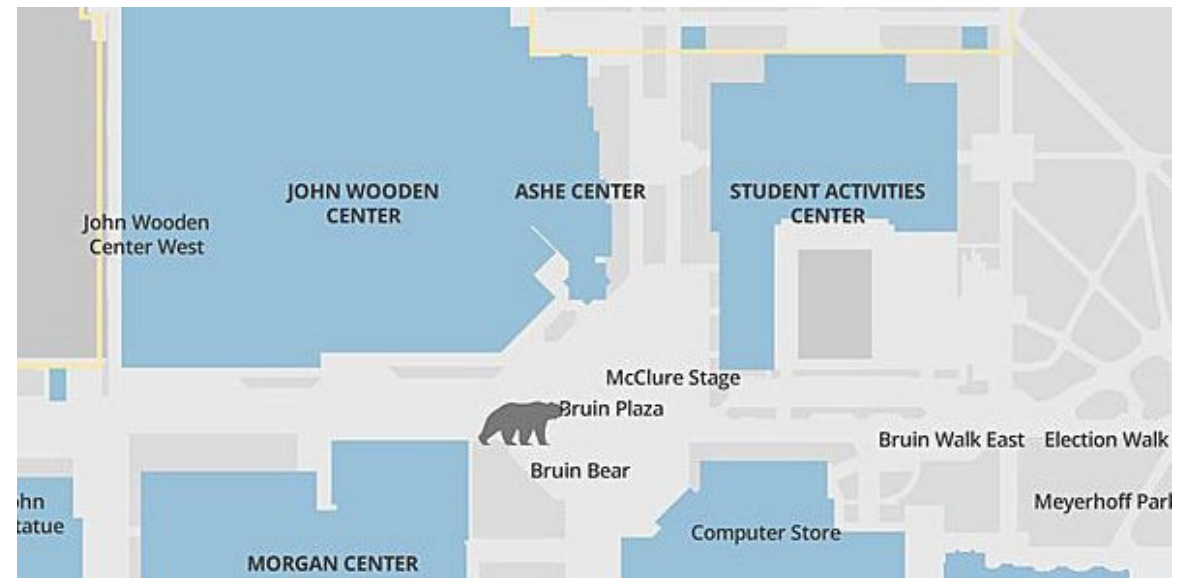

Insurance Definitions

- Deductible
 - A set amount of money you pay at first for covered health care services, before your health plan begins paying.
- Out-of-Pocket Maximum
 - The maximum dollar amount you will pay for covered services during the year.
 - After that, your plan will pay for the rest of your covered care that year.
- Claim
 - What a doctor submits to the insurance company so they can get paid.
 - It shows the medical services that were provided to you.
- Referral
 - A suggestion of a doctor or hospital to go to.
 - With certain health coverage plans, you may need to get a referral from your primary care provider to see a specialist or get other care.
