

WINTER 2022 STAY THROUGH GUIDE

Are you planning to stay in the local area during the holidays?
If so, here are some important information, resources and relevant events happening on/off campus that you should be aware of.

Important things to know about UCLA campus logistics:

In an effort to conserve energy, decrease costs to residents, and efficiently allocate resources between the Fall and Winter Quarters, the University enters a period of closure from December 23 to January 2. Required personnel and services will stay open through this time (for example: Covell Dispatch, Maintenance, UCPD, etc.) to maintain physical plant and security measures.

Dashew Center Hours & Services:

• December 19, 2022 - December 22, 2022:

The Dashew Center will be closed for in-person services. All remote/virtual services will be available during this time.

• December 23, 2022 - January 2, 2023:

The Dashew Center will be closed for the Winter Holiday Closure and all services will not be available during this time (Please plan accordingly).

Please see our Contact Us Page for more information & office Hours.

COVID Testing during Winter Holiday Closure:

Please visit the COVID-19 Resources Page for all important testing and health guidance during the break.

Maintenance at UCLA campus:

The maintenance and shutoff schedules have yet to be determined. Please be aware of signage on residential floors or buildings for information. For any problems or inquires, visit Covell Dispatch (1st Floor of Covell Commons) or call: (310) 206-9633 (x69633).

Front Desk and Covell Dispatch Assistance:

If your Front Desk is not open and you need immediate assistance, remember that Covell Dispatch is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Visit Covell Dispatch on the first floor of Covell Commons or call them at (310) 206-9633 (x69633).
